

BOSTON POLICE HOMICIDE UNIT
(Investigation report)

CC #11-919-390

File Title	Investigator(s)	Page
Jeremiah Hurley	Miller Thomas	1 of 1
Incident location	Case #	Method
39 Eastboure Street	105 of 91	Bombing
Report Re:	Date
Interview of Thomas A. Shay	11/09/91

On Saturday November 9, 1991 at about 4:45pm while at 39 Eastbourne Street with Detective's Fogerty, O'Malley and members of the ATF. I had a conversation with Mr. Thomas Shay of that address who gave the following account of his time on Sunday October 27, 1991.

1. Left home at 8:30am drove to Burger King on Boylston Street(fenway area) used bath room.
2. Then drove to Dukin Doughnuts in Malden, did not go inside, no bathroom, used Caldor construction site in Malden near Dukin's
3. Then drove to 90 Avon Street to meet a customer did not recall his name, only that he was Italian, there for 30 minutes, arriving about 9:15am departing at about 9:45am
4. Then went to Chelsea Naval Hospital to visit uncle William Hayes, stayed for about 10 minutes
5. Then drove to Dough Boy Doughnuts on Dorchester Ave. near MBTA yard, bought globe, one cup coffee, 2 doughnuts
6. Then drove to Castle Island, spent 10 minutes sitting on bench eating and drinking.
7. Then drove to 1024 Morton Street to visit aunt Alice Hayes dropped off dress, stayed 15 to 20 minutes.
8. Back home 11:30am/parked in driveway, Mary on street in his parking space.
9. Mary departed home about 1:00pm