REPORT OF INTERVIEW

With Christopher Whitten at 22 Pine Haven Trailer Park
 Old Town, Maine

On March 17, 1992, per request of the Boston Field Division, I interviewed Christopher Whitten at 22 Pine Haven Trailer Park, in Old Town, Maine, in the presence of Sergeant Steve Hatch. The interview was recorded.

Whitten, 22 years of age lives in a trailer with his parents. He is employed as a security guard in Bangor, Maine. He is in the Army Reserve and occasionally attends Fort Devens in Massachusetts for training. He is a squad leader in a Mortar Platoon.

During the interview, Whitten was very nervous, and at first, would not admit to knowing Thomas Shea, Jr., however, he later stated that in early October 1991 he met Shea at the Gray Hound Bus Station in Boston and they talked for two hours. He stated that he has just travelled from Montreal and that he stayed over night in Boston. He stated that the extent of his visit with Shea was at the bus depot only. He stated that this was the only occasion that he met with Shea.

Whitten stated that during Christmas Shea wrote him a letter, however, he threw it away. Whitten later provided me with the letter and it was post marked November 16, 1991 from Brockton, Massachusetts (attached).

ILS (Continued)

Whitten stated that he was not aware of the bombing incident that occurred in Roslindale on 10/29/91.

Whitten was adamant about not taking a polygraph exam, he felt that it would be an invasion of his privacy, however, on this date (3/18/92) he agreed to take an exam. He was informed that it would be arranged at a later date.

This portion was not recorded:

Whitten's commanding Officer - Captain Webb
Company 830 16th
Army Reserves
Dexter, Maine
Tel. No. 207-927-7580

Whitten stated that during August and September 1991 he was part of a one hundred man force (Army Reserve Light Infantry) that travelled to New Mexico, and assisted the National Forestry Service with searching for drug fields and drug smuggling.

Whitten allegedly visited a cousin (Aunt's daughter-mother's side) for two weeks just prior to visiting Thomas Shea in Boston.

Dear Chris

every since I met you, my life has turned around. Those words from a person that cares. "Believe in yourself," I wish well I mean, it would had been cool if you lived close so then I could visit you. You really made me feel like someone out there cares about me. I cried when I left you, for about 2-3 days, none of my friends have ever said anything to me that was next anything as so special as what you said to me. I hope that in the near ~~time~~^{time} you take the time to write to me. My address is 200 Falls Blvd. Bld. D107 Quincy Ma. 02169. Thomas A. Shay Falls Church's

I want you to know, I just wish that there were more people in the world like yourself, that took the time to care just to say a couple of words. Thank you your newest of friends

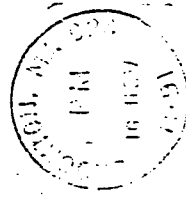

Thomas!
