

Josephine Wallace

Josephine "Jo" Barnum Wallace, 79, a long-time Milton resident, died at Massachusetts General Hospital on Wednesday, Oct. 8, after a brief illness. She was a great grand-niece of the showman P.T. Barnum. Born in New York City, Jo lived in Pelham, NY before moving to Milton. She was a graduate of Milton Academy, Class of 1947. She was an Eastern Ladies Junior Figure Skating Champion and the National Ladies Figure Skating Champion in the late 1940s and then became professional. In 1952-54, she was the star skater in the "Hollywood Ice Review" and, with Jane Broadhurst, coordinated several of her own ice skating shows, the "Almanac on Ice." She skated with Dick Button and Sonja Henie, and performed at dinner theaters and the Statler Hotel chain.

She joined the Ice Capades in 1955.

After her association with the Ice Capades, Jo later returned to Milton and taught figure skating at Milton Academy.

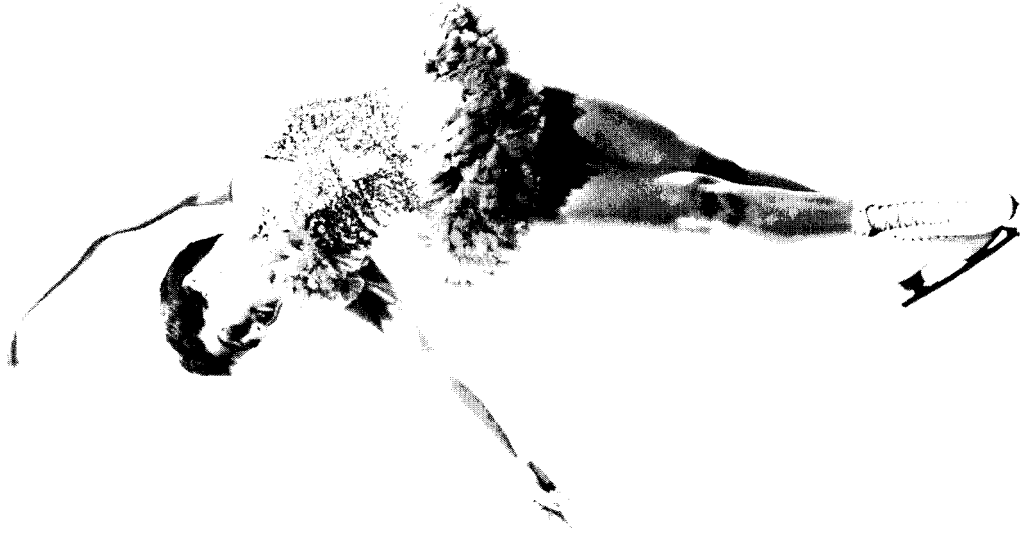

She entered the real estate business after 10 years at the Academy and was an associate at Hunneman & Company, Coldwell Banker, Jack Conway & Company and most recently C.K.R.

Residential Real Estate, all of Milton. During her career in real estate, she won many awards for distinction.

She was a member of the Skating Club of Boston, the Greater Boston Real Estate Board, and the Milton Hoosic Club. She was the director of the Hoosic Follies for several years and also a past club governor. She was an avid golfer and tennis player at the Hoosic Club.

She is survived by her husband John D. "Jack" Wallace; her two sons, Alfred W. Trenkler and David Johnson Wallace; her daughter-in-law Judy Lloyd; her brother William Barnum of Boston; her "honorary" daughter Ellen Ochs and son Jamal Ait Hammou; and her step-sister Amy Wilson of Vermont. She was step-sister of the late Philip Suter of Concord. Donations may be sent to Milton Hospital Development Fund, 100 Highland Street, Milton, MA 02186.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn # 32 (HS) For the Beauty of the Earth (Dix)
Unison Reading Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
